IX Capital International announced obtaining a Type 4 (advising on securities) license from the SFC

IX Capital International Limited (“IXCI”) today announced obtaining a Type 4 (advising on securities) license from the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (“SFC”).

IXCI is licensed by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission to provide Type 4 (advising on securities) regulated activities. IXCI provides investment advisory services on the following product types: stocks, unit trusts, mutual funds and debt securities. For the avoidance of doubt, IXCI does not provide any investment advisory services on virtual assets.

IXCI’s index business does not fall within the regulatory remit of the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission and therefore IXCI’s index business is not regulated by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission.
